UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY 40208

SCHOOL OF LAW LIBRARY

February 22, 1971.

Mr. William C. Younger, Law Librarian
Alabama Supreme Court Library
Judicial Bldg. Capitol
Montgomery, Ala. 36104

Dear Bill:

Enclosed you will find the last of the checks and the closing out of the Bank of Louisville here in Louisville.

Yes, that check was the total amount left in the Treasury of the SEAALL, $372.01.

Each year around May 1st or 15th, we did the billing. As you found out, I kept names of the Librarians on cards. The names came from the Directory of AALL, and each year I mailed the dues to all of those listed in the Directory for the various states involved in the South Eastern. As you will soon learn, the same 70 or 80 will pay their dues. The smaller libraries are not interested and even the larger ones will not become members.

Since we no longer get the money from the AALL you won't have anything else to do but bill for the dues and pay bills. The people that get out the scholarship material usually do their own mailing, and Leah's Newsletter seems to come from her office, too.

I am pleased that you are the Secretary-Treasurer. I am sure you will be far more efficient than I was. I never seem methodical enough to keep up with it all, but since you have a good secretary I am sure it will go easier for you! It was much easier for me after I got a secretary too.

Please call on my should you need to.

Most cordially,
